Court has passed a remark in one of the judgments about Dr. M. J. Ittoop of the Ernakulam General Hospital to the effect that 'he is not worth the salt he is eating';

(2) if the answer to (1) is in the affirmative, what were the circumstances under which such remark was made;

(3) has the Agent to the Governor-General, Madras States, forwarded those remarks to our Government for enquiry and report;

(4) if the answer to (3) is in the affirmative, what action have the Government taken about the matter;

(5) will the Government be pleased to place all the papers connected with the matter on the Table of the House?

Diwan Bahadur Dr. V. Verghese:—(1) Yes.

(2) As Government are not in possession of a complete copy of the judgment, it is not possible to mention the circumstances under which the said remark was made.

(3) The remark has been forwarded for such action as the Darbar deem necessary.

(4) and (5). The matter is under enquiry.

Supervision allowance.
